TREE PLANTING in the snow was the order of the day Thursday and Friday for several city employees. Sam Pevey and Jim Flynn, street department employees, are shown planting a red oak tree on West College Friday. A second city crew handled the task in other locations. Several varieties of trees were included in the overall planting. The program is part of a joint venture started a year ago by the Jacksonville Pilot Club and the Journal Courier Co.

Communists Say Russ, France To Aid U.N. Fund In Violent Macao Riot

MACAO (AP)—Pro-Communist Chinese surged through this six-square-mile Portuguese enclave on China's south coast for five hours, Saturday, sacking City Hall, beating up officials and fighting police in rioting that bore earmarks of Peking direction. One of the demonstrators' demands was that police burn their night sticks.

There were unconfirmed reports that one policeman was beaten to death and that three Chinese rioters were shot. Portuguese authorities faced their worst crisis since Red Chinese artillery fired into the enclave during a border dispute in 1952.

(In Lisbon, Portuguese government officials had no comment on the rioting, saying they were awaiting word from Macao authorities.)

It was the third outbreak in four days. The unrest stemmed from a clash in mid-November between Portuguese territorial police and workers clearing a site for a pro-Communist school.

A broadcast saying Portuguese authorities had yielded to Chinese demands brought a halt to the rioting by nightfall but Portuguese troops patrolled the streets enforcing an all-night curfew.

The broadcast that ended the violence was made by Ho Yin, 56, a multimillionaire who serves as Macao's unofficial go-between with Red China. He did not list the demands to which he said government officials had yielded.

The pro-Communist Chinese had blamed police for brutality that caused the clash at the school site last month. Police had gone there to halt work on the school, saying it had not been approved by Macao's Public Works Department.

One pro-Communist demand was punishment and firing of high police officials.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — The Soviet Union and France Saturday were reported planning to contribute between $5 million and $7 million each to help wipe out a U.N. peace-keeping deficit of almost $30 million that they helped build up.

A well-placed diplomat said his information was that each would make a voluntary contribution in that range before the General Assembly adjourns on Dec. 20. A U.N. official said the figure was "not far wrong" but he did not know about the timing. Another official predicted that eventually all U.N. members would give.

U.N. Secretary-General U Thant refused to rule out the possibility that he would take a trip to Southeast Asia, where the war in Viet Nam is a source of great concern to him.

Asked about speculation that he would make such a journey after the assembly, he told reporters, "I have not contemplated any trip for the moment."

But asked subsequently if he would rule it out, he replied, "No, no, no, it's not ruled out."

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Vasiliy V. Kuznetsov earlier paid a 28-minute call on Thant in his 38th-floor office. He said he congratulated Thant on his re-election Friday night to a new five-year term.

Thant himself said Kuznetsov's visit was "just a courtesy call." He said "I don't think I should comment" on whether Viet Nam was discussed.

Soviet delegation spokesmen insist that Kuznetsov is here just to attend the assembly.

On the unanimous recommendation of the Security Council, the assembly had just rejected Thant's proposal to elect a new term ending Dec. 31, 1971. He was explaining why he had agreed to stay after hesitating so long because of the war, the U.N.'s poor financial situation and other difficulties.

The Foreign Ministry's statement was broadcast by Hanoi's Viet Nam News Agency. It said the government had protested the air attacks to the International Control Commission for Viet Nam. The commission is composed of Canada, Poland and India.

The statement said: "On Dec. 2, 1966, planes of the United States attacked a densely populated area in the southern suburb of Hanoi and other densely populated areas inside the city."

U.S. military spokesmen in Saigon said two targets of the attacks were outside Hanoi, one of them 14 1/2 miles away.

Signs Indicate Smith, Wilson Talks Fruitful

LONDON (AP) — Prime Ministers Harold Wilson of Britain and Ian Smith of rebel, white-minority-ruled Rhodesia ended their seaborne summit conference early Sunday amid signs they had reached broad agreement on a settlement.

Although no official word was released by either side, the atmosphere at No. 10 Downing Street, Wilson's official residence in London, was one of scarcely concealed elation.

It was considered significant that Britain was in no hurry to tell its side of the story to newsmen in both London and Gibraltar, following the two-day confrontation aboard a Royal Navy cruiser.

The British had planned to lose no time in telling their version if there had been a breakdown, sources said.

Smith, who a year ago led Rhodesia to a declaration of independence branded illegal by Britain, left the cruiser Tiger soon after midnight and immediately took a plane — presumably for Salisbury, his capital. He had radioed his Cabinet to assemble in Salisbury for an emergency session, presumably to report on the talks.

Wilson remained on board the vessel overnight and was scheduled to return to London in the morning.

It appeared the two had agreed to make no announcements until Smith returned home and reported to his cabinet.

The meeting was the first between Wilson and Smith since the rangy ex-fighter pilot declared Rhodesia independent of Britain Nov. 11, 1965 to bar the country's four million Africans from eventual power.

Wilson went into the talks demanding guarantees that Rhodesia's 250,000 whites will end the rebellion and permit eventual African rule in Rhodesia.

Failure would toss the crisis to the United Nations. Its African and Asian members are eager to cut off Rhodesia economically and use force to oust Smith if possible.

The situation was so precariously balanced that plans had been drafted in London to deal with either success or failure in the talks.

In case of failure, Britain has circulated a resolution for the U.N. Security Council calling for a worldwide ban on trade in Rhodesia's main export goods.

The draft of the resolution lacked stiff enforcement procedures possible under the U.N. charter, presumably to provide a bargaining counter against African and Asian delegates who will demand stronger action no matter what Britain proposes.

Despite their present reluctance to commit themselves to the proposal to deny the New York Democrat a seat when Congress convenes Jan. 10, their private comments make one thing clear:

The flamboyant Harlem preacher-politician is in the most serious difficulty of his 22-year congressional career.

Talks with House leaders and influential members of both parties disclose a wide sympathy for the announced intention of Rep. Lionel Van Deerlin, D-Calif., to challenge Powell's seating if Powell still is in contempt of court on Jan. 10.

Whether that sympathy can be turned into the votes needed to exclude the 57-year-old Negro from Congress apparently is dependent on two things:

—Any actions Powell may take before Jan. 10 to purge himself of contempt.

—The course taken by Speaker John W. McCormack, D-Mass., and Majority Leader Carl Albert, D-Okla.

The action taken by the Democratic leaders probably will be decisive in settling the issue raised by Van Deerlin, who has been in the House only four years and says he is acting alone.

So far, McCormack has declined to comment on the matter and so has Albert.

LBJ, Ordaz Vow Continued Ties

CIUDAD ACUNA, Mexico (AP) — The Presidents of the United States and Mexico renewed Saturday the vows of friendship between their nations at a spot on the border symbolizing this spirit in name and in concrete.

They met this time to inspect the site where the two countries are building a gigantic $75-million international dam across the Rio Grande. The name of the dam is Amistad — the Mexican word for friendship.

The 6 1/2-mile-long structure of earth and concrete lies 12 miles west of Ciudad Acuna and its sister city of Del Rio, Texas. It will control floods, provide irrigation and eventually produce power.

With traditional Abraxas — the Latin equivalent of beards — Lyndon B. Johnson and Gustavo Diaz Ordaz exchanged greetings on the rickety bridge between the two cities.

It was a raw, damp, see-your-breath day. But the welcome for President Johnson was warm.

In the town Plaza of Ciudad Acuna, the two chief executives spoke from a platform glowing with the red, white and green of the Mexican national colors and the red, white and blue of the United States.

In his welcoming remarks, Diaz Ordaz voiced a hope that "the name, the dam, will turn into a symbol of the relations between our two countries."

Johnson called the dam "another link in the bridge of mutual trust, friendship and progress which unites our people."

The two Presidents made their way down a corridor in a crowd of several thousand packing the Ciudad Acuna square to the bust of Benito Juarez, the Abraham Lincoln of Mexico. Johnson placed a wreath of golden leaves beneath the bust of Juarez.

From there it was off by helicopter to fly over the dam site and down to a neat construction town on the Mexico side for a barbecue under a tent.

Headquarters, Billet Also Shelled By VC

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — The Viet Cong launched a double-barreled attack on Saigon on Sunday, hitting the capital's huge air base with mortars and a ground attack and then three hours later blasting a U.S. headquarters and billet downtown.

American officials said 11 U.S. Army soldiers were wounded in the downtown billet blast, none seriously. At the Tan Son Nhut Air Base on Saigon's outskirts, U.S. and allied casualties and material damage were all described as light.

U.S. spokesmen said 17 Viet Cong were killed at the base and one captured in a firefight after the mortar attack. They said the fighting ended shortly before 6 a.m., about 4 1/2 hours after the initial mortar barrage.

An allied reaction force was reported to have pinned down a number of the attackers inside the base defense perimeter before the firefight ended.

The building that was blasted downtown is called the Binh Duong, which joins the main headquarters in Viet Nam of the U.S. Agency for International Development.

Windows in the AID building were shattered by the blast, but apparently there were no casualties or other damage there.

The Binh Duong, a former theater, houses a headquarters of a U.S. Army psychological warfare unit and part of it is used as a transient billet.

Military personnel on the scene said about 15 persons were quartered in the building when the blast went off.

The same building was damaged by a Viet Cong bomb in 1963 when it was used as a movie theater for American personnel and their dependents.

One demolition team officer on the scene said it was believed a charge had been planted on the roof of the building and set off by a timing device.

Other investigators said an explosive device apparently had been planted on the ground floor and the blast tore upward through the building.

Capt. Troy Jernigan, 30, of Fayetteville, N.C., who was in the billet, said: "I was asleep. There was a big explosion and everything started falling like a hail storm."

He was not injured. The two Viet Cong raids in Saigon closely followed massive U.S. bombing attacks Friday near Hanoi, the capital of North Viet Nam.

The attack on Saigon's Tan Son Nhut air base began about 1:30 a.m. with a mortar barrage.

At the air base, hundreds of servicemen and their families greeted Johnson. In Viet Nam, Johnson told them, brave Americans are fighting and dying to protect the freedom and independence of 16 million humans.

"You can be proud of the uniform you are wearing," Johnson said, "it was never worn by better men."

From the air base, Johnson headed a motorcade to Del Rio, where high school bands were out, the school kids and their folks with a forest of tiny Mexican and American flags. So were some peaceful pickets.

Johnson got out of his car on the American side of the bridge and hiked a muddy route to the international boundary mark where Mexico's president and his wife were waiting.

Climbing back into cars on the Mexican side, the two chief executives rode side by side through a paper storm of confetti. Thousands of people waved and shouted "Bien Venidos" — Welcome — to the visitors.

Deputy Marion J. Stanley, Martin of Marion County, identified the victims as Ronald D. Wallis, 24, of Central City, and Miss Pamela Thurman, 19, of Salem.

Martin said they died of apparent carbon monoxide poisoning. An inquiry will be held, he added.

CARPENTERS HONORED—Six members of Carpenters' Local 904 were honored Friday evening during the annual union Christmas party at the Holiday Inn for twenty-five years of service. Two others were unable to be present for the presentation of pins. Shown from left: Kermit Reside, Harvey Holmes of Baylis; John Colvin, Robert C. Kemp, Jess Yaeger of Pittsfield; and Wesley Slaid, Ed Hobson of White Hall and Tony Dobernick of Mt. Olive were unable to be present.

Presentation of the pins was made by Melvin Tribble, business agent for the union, and Wayne Blackburn, recording secretary. More than 175 members and wives were on hand for the party Friday evening which included dinner and dancing. Herman Dober of Jacksonville is scheduled to receive his 50-year pin soon according to union officials.

U.S. Tests Ability To Detect Blasts In 'Sneak' Experiment

HATTIESBURG, Miss.

(AP) — The United States Saturday successfully conducted a well-advertised "sneak" test in the nuclear weapons field and then set project scientists to work to figure out how sneaky it was.

Even their preliminary findings could have international impact as regards possible vulnerability of ideas to extend the present limited test ban on nuclear weapons tests to include the outlawing of underground tests still allowed under the treaty.

A nuclear bomb packing the built-in explosive wall of 350 tons of TNT was detonated at 7:15 a.m. in a huge, preformed cavity more than a half-mile beneath the surface of the great Tatum salt dome, 22 miles southwest of Hattiesburg.

The spherical cavity, almost as high as a nine-story office building and 110 feet across, was created in October, 1964, by the detonation of a nuclear explosive packing much more punch than Saturday's device. The earlier one had the equivalent yield of 5,000 tons of TNT.

The idea of Saturday's blast was to make the first major test of the theory of "decoupling," or muffling, of a nuclear underground blast.

This theory, previously supported by tests with nonnuclear high explosives, holds that if a nuclear device is detonated within some kind of a cavity, its built-in wall can be masked up to 400 times — as compared with a device of similar built-in punch exploded in a closely confined area.

That is, the "decoupling" concept holds, an underground blast — if detonated under the right circumstances — can be made to appear far less powerful than it actually is, and could possibly escape long-range detection.

Sensitive seismographs to record the power — or the extent of apparently toned down power — were deployed all the way from close-in points out to distances of 1,200 miles, including a network in Montana.

But, long before preliminary findings on their readings were available, nonscientific observers were agreed that the blast was somewhat of a real "sneak."

Newsmen and other watchers observing from a point 1 1/2 miles from the detonation site disagreed as to whether the earth trembled, even slightly. However, scientists at the control center one mile from ground zero agreed there was a slight earth jolt.

Key scientists of the venture — called Project Sterling — reported no radiation was released to the surface by the deep-seated blast. Low flying airplanes could join ground monitors in testing any unprogrammed radiation break-throughs.

All observers agreed there was no audible sound of the blast.

As a precaution against the unlikely event that radioactive materials might break through the surface — or something else go wrong — the Atomic Energy Commission and the Defense Department asked more than 100 people living in homes within two miles from the shock point to evacuate their homes temporarily.

So far, as could be determined, all complied — but within an hour after the shot, some began to trickle back.

The government spent $5 million in preparing and detonating Saturday's blast — but this did not include "travel allowances" to the folks who voluntarily evacuated the test area.

Adults were to get $4 for every six hours they spent away from home as a result of the shot, and there was a $2 allowance for each child.

Thanksgiving Day with a daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Henry of Woodson.

The Monroe Chaudoin entertained their children and families with an early Thanksgiving dinner Sunday, Nov. 20.

Mrs. Robert Wilford of Iowa, the former Sue Starnes, was a recent visitor of her parents the Everett Starnes.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Wells spent the weekend of Nov. 11-12-13 with a daughter, Miss Sarah Wells at Arlington Heights, and called on another daughter, Mrs. Mary Wells Kramer at Skokie Valley Community Hospital. Mrs. Kramer has now been discharged from the hospital but must wear a brace for a spinal condition.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Clayton and the Edwin Clayton family spent Thanksgiving Day with Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Hoover and Ruth Ann at Pittsfield. Ruth Ann spent the remainder of her vacation here with her grandparents, the Herbert Claytons, returning home Sunday.

Files $250,000
Suit In Death Of Former Resident

The husband of the late Helen Entenken Chicoski, former Jacksonville resident killed March 24th in an accident at Davenport, Iowa, has brought a damage suit in Davenport Federal Court for the sum of $250,000.

The action is brought in behalf of Luke M. Chicoski, as executor of the estate of his late wife, Helen L. Chicoski, 56, who was walking on the street in Davenport when killed. The suit is against Reuben Black, trustee of the trust estate of Charles Korth, deceased, the Charles Korth estate doing business as Korth Transfer of Sauk County, Wisconsin and James Edward Salchenberger, driver of the truck.

Among the allegations is the claim of the plaintiff that the truck being operated by Salchenberger was without brakes being in good working order.

Another suit based on the death of Howard E. Woods, killed at the same time, is asking a similar amount of damage. Jury trials are demanded in each case.

Uphold Right
To Prevent
Timber Cutting

BEARDSTOWN — A circuit court judge has handed down a decision favoring the South Beardstown Drainage and Levee District commissioners' right to prevent the Lily Lake Gun Club from cutting sawlogs on a tract of 535 acres of timber adjacent the Illinois river near here.

Basis of the decision in this case was an easement granted in 1913 to the drainage district.

The gun club action in desiring to cut the sawlogs was opposed by the district commissioners on the ground that elimination of the timber would destroy its protection from wind and "wash" against its levees.

It was held that the easement gave the district full right to control the lumber section.

Commissioners of the district are Carl Lebkuecher, Max Thompson and Homer Rohn. They were represented by the local law firm of Northcutt and

Power Co. And Chapin Club To Sponsor Contest

CHAPIN — Holiday activities for the Chapin Community Club are somewhat curbed this year because of the pending erection of the new American Legion Building. There will however be a Christmas Lighting Contest which the club will co-sponsor with the Illinois Power Company.

Entry blanks are available at either the Chapin State Bank or the John Onken Store. There are two classifications for decorating, Religious and Miscellaneous. Cash prizes will be awarded winners.

The club will not sponsor a Christmas party this year due to lack of location facilities. The new Legion building is expected to be erected sometime this month, and the community club will suspend its meetings until the second Monday in February, 1967.

GRADE SCHOOL AGE
BOYS MUST ANSWER TO STEALING BEER

JERSEYVILLE — A "beer bust" landed five grade school age boys in the Circuit Court here Monday morning on charges of theft.

Chief of Police Herman H. Blackorby Jr. reported that the five boys were being charged with the theft of five (48 cans) cases of beer from the beer truck of the George Koster Agency. The beer was stolen from the truck by the boys Wednesday night.

The stolen beer was taken to a ditch by the five boys and hidden there preparatory to the party they were planning. Another group of boys, mostly under sixteen years of age, learned of the theft from the truck of the Koster beer, and where it had been hidden.

The second group, seven in number, went to the spot where the beer was cached the evening before Thanksgiving and stole the five cases. They took the beer to the home of a sixteen year old boy who was spending the evening alone. The beer party followed.

Chief Blackorby reported that all but 20 cans of the beer was consumed by the participants at the "beer bust." Identity of the boys who stole the beer from the truck followed investigation of the beer party. The case Monday morning of the five was continued until Friday afternoon when a magistrate will be available.

Auto Mechanics Course Reviewed In IEA Article

The auto mechanics department at Greenfield High School received a detailed review in the Illinois Education Association Journal in November. The magazine is received by all teachers in the state of Illinois and a large number of non-professional citizens.

Much of the article dealt with the decision of the board of education and faculty of Greenfield District 10 to abandon the agriculture department in favor of the auto mechanics course.

This was done in face of the fact that Greenfield is a farming community. It was felt at the time of the change in curriculum that the agriculture courses were not meeting the needs of an adequate number of students. The new course has appealed to the students mainly because of their natural desire as teenagers for the family auto. It appeals to the adults because, through their newly-gained knowledge, the boys learn to maintain the family car, trucks, and other internal combustion engines including farm machinery, as well.

The course at present deals mainly with the automobile, but Raymond Elder, class instructor, hopes to add a diesel truck engine to the shop's equipment in the future. The shop's recent equipment includes new motors and transmissions donated by Nell Chevrolet Company and Morrow Brothers Garage and six chopped-down laboratory models which provide actual shop experience.

The lab models include a V-8 and straight six-cylinder motor of each of the three major auto manufacturers. Used cars were purchased from local dealers at a cost of $50 or less.

John O. Burch, district superintendent, points out: "The course is not designed to turn out trained mechanics, but to give the boy whose aptitude leads him into this program, two years of solid vocational training which make him employable upon graduation from high school and qualified to become a productive beginner in an automobile repair shop." Mr. Burch also stated: "There are a half-dozen boys who would have been dropouts today without the program. We have finally found something which appealed to them enough to keep them in school and to keep up their grades."

Other guests were Dorothy Hinson, le demi chateau premiere, Mr. Martin, and partners of Madison and Morgan county Salons.

Table decorations were in keeping with Mrs. Martin's motto "birds." Miss Ruth A. Hitch, laumonier departmental, and la secretaire-cassiere of Salon 603, served as hostess. After the supper guests were presented to the group. Chapeau Martin spoke of her work in the 8 et 40 and the tuberculosis and cystic fibrosis projects. Plans are being made by the local group to send stuffed toys and dolls to children who are patients at the National Jewish Hospital, Denver, Colo. Plans are also being made to assist with a party for tubercular children in a Chicago hospital early next year.

Chapeau Ivamae Dickerson presented a personal gift to Chapeau Martin and members of the Salon gave her a tapestry.

Bingo was enjoyed after the meeting. Mrs. Verna B. Taylor gave Chapeau Martin a red bird planter in which was enclosed a substantial check for the nurses scholarship in memory of Bea Allen, departmental chapeau passe, whose death occurred recently.

Religion In The News

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
AP Religion Writer

Grouped on a single block of land, the various churches share buildings and manpower in running a busy religious industry, every day and evening, in the middle of town.

That's the vision — and the prospective reality — which is developing among American churches today as a means of reinforcing spiritual life at the heart of modern communities.

It's part of the "new City" concept, and major Christian denominations have joined forces to put it into operation. It also is taking shape in various ways in many older urban areas.

"The day is gone when any one church can develop an adequate strategy by itself," says the Rev. John DeBoer of the United Church's Board of Homeland Ministries' division of urban extension. It has issued a guidebook for group-clustered churches.

The most advanced of the "new city" projects, among several proposed, is for the town of Columbia, Md., where a versatile, multidimensional "campus" is planned for religious activities.

"This venture can set a pattern for a more harmonious mode of life among people of many different faiths," said Bishop Daniel Corrigan, director of the Episcopal Church's home department.

He said it also offered a method for strengthening church influence in future new towns and cities throughout America.

The Episcopal Church last week became the 12th denomination to enter the plan, pledging $250,000 to it. Altogether, the 12 denominations have put more than $2 million to back the new approach.

They've formed a joint "religious facilities corporation" to carry it out—the first time that principal Protestant bodies have pooled building finances on such a broad scale of cooperation.

Church involvement in community development also got another boost this month when four denominations and a secular agency, Urban American, Inc. entered an agreement to help sponsor low-cost housing projects across the country.

They will add in forming interfaith, non-profit housing corporations in various localities to obtain federal loans for building developments — estimated at up to 30,000 units annually.

In some cases, "seed money" may be provided to local church groups for the projects. Denominations involved so far are the Methodist Church, the United Presbyterian Church, the United Church of Christ and the Episcopal Church.

At the Columbia, Md., site, where a complex of nine villages is under way between Baltimore and Washington, the 12-denomination corporation is to share ministers and facilities.

This will involve common use of buildings, joint administrative offices and expenditures for low-cost housing investment, community youth work and joint religious educational programs for all age groups.

Buildings are to be constructed for multiple week-long uses throughout the days and evenings for various church-oriented community activities. Ministers will work together in pastoral counseling, youth work and administration.

Although each denomination will retain its own traditions in worship services, the same sanctuaries may be used at different hours or services may be held in separate chapels in the same buildings.

Land is being reserved adjacent to each elementary school for released time education classes five days a week, with salaried teachers, jointly employed by the participating churches.

The first of the nine villages expected to be ready next spring, is at Wilde Lake, where the churches have acquired a five-acre tract for three worship sanctuaries and central buildings for joint education and administrative facilities.

Participating denominations, besides the Episcopal Church, are:

The Methodist Church, the United Church of Christ, United Presbyterians, American Baptists, Quakers, Evangelical United Brethren, Lutheran Church in America, Missouri-

Synod Lutherans, American Lutheran Church, Church of the Brethren, and the Presbyterian Church U.S. Southern.

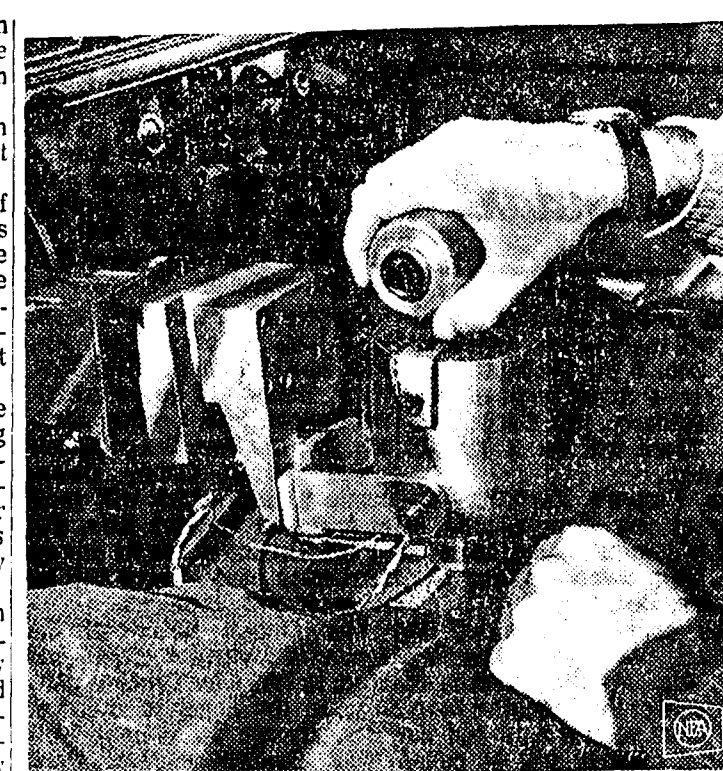

Roman Catholic and Jewish groups also are taking part in some aspects of the plan.

Launching of the new town of Columbia came through efforts of James M. Rouse, a mortgage banker, developer and active Presbyterian layman who maintains that cities grown up in helter-skelter fashion have lost touch with their people.

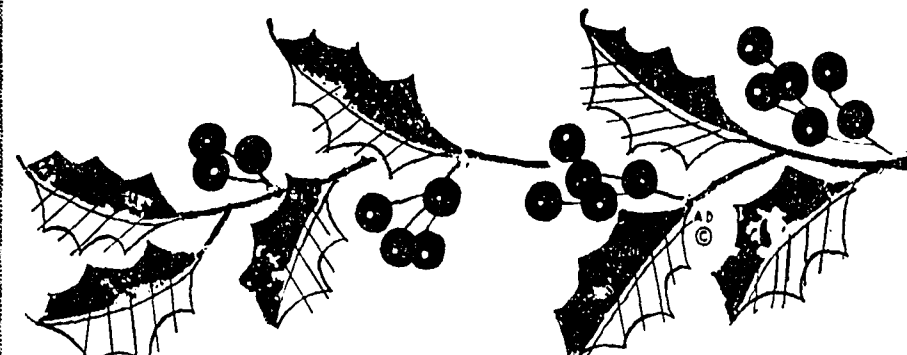

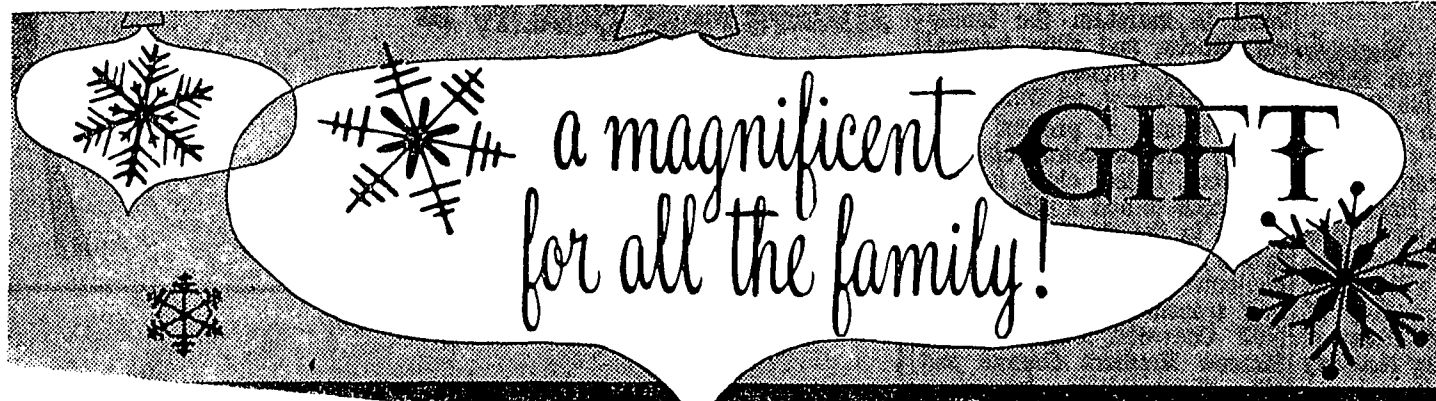

Columbia is not the only site where the new-style planning appears in prospect. The Committee for National Land Development Policy has proposals for 25 new cities, with churches grouped together in centrally located parks.

Committee chairman Joseph Timan says that modern urban sprawl threatens to destroy neighborhood churches and temples unless special provisions are made for spiritual centers as part of the community environment.

How about serving meatballs with tomato sauce on green noodles instead of the usual spaghetti?

AUTO CONTROL STICK replaces the conventional steering wheel, accelerator and brake pedal in an experimental car at Ohio State University. Pushing the stick forward accelerates the car, pulling it backward brakes the auto, and moving it to either side controls steering.

News, Views Century Ago

From the Jacksonville Sentinel:

CANE PRESENTED — Personal friends of Ex-Sheriff Palmer presented him with a gold headed cane last week as a mark of personal regard. The presentation speech was made by I. J. Ketcham, Esq., and was warmly responded to by Mr. Palmer.

A NEW BRAND OF FLOUR — Messrs. Goodrich, Neving & Co., of Jerseyville Mills, have introduced into the Jacksonville market their XXX flour, a brand which we are informed is eagerly sought after wherever it has appeared. We have tried a sack of the above flour in our family, and find it all that it is recommended to be.

MAMMOTH TURNIP OF THE SEASON — We were presented this week with a turnip grown in the vicinity of Lynnville, that measures two feet, five and a half inches in circumference. This is the king turnip of the season. It beats the premium turnip at the county fair and all other turnips yet brought to the fore.

AUCTION EXCITEMENT — The new auction room recently opened on the south side of the square has been furnishing our citizens with wholesome excitement, fun and wonderfully cheap bargains. Some things go almost without price, well seasoned with the drollery and original humor of that prince of auctioneers, Capt. E. Roe.

THANKSGIVING — Our business houses were closed on Thanksgiving day, and religious services were held in the various churches of this city. In several of them, we are informed, the discourses turned as usual on the radical partisan hinge. The service at the churches was, as a matter of course, followed by the general demolition of stuffed fowl at the domestic board, the social reunion of families, friends, &c.

In the afternoon the firemen paraded with their apparatus. From the Carrollton Gazette: Major Rainey will establish his office on the south side of the square where he will be prepared to deal out justice to offenders and attend to other business coming properly before a justice's court.

The railroad company have again made some slight changes in their time table, which may be seen at the head of this column.

NEW POST OFFICE — There has been a new post office established in this county, called Big Bend, about five miles south of Woodville, near the Macoupin Creek. Frank L. Recht is appointed postmaster. This is the office Esq. Hesse originally applied for, but died before it was allowed. We also learn that an effort is making to get a postoffice at Woodville again.

CONFLAGRATION ALMOST — Some bad little boys — and such there are in this city famous for good Sunday schools — undertook a few days since to imitate the lesser vices of their parents, preparatory to out-stripping them in the greater ones. Thus inclined, they manufactured certain little paper rolls, after the fashion of cigars, and for fear of discovery, hid themselves in the hay stack yard of our worthy citizen, Conrad Weaver, and there began to puff away and fancy they were men.

But not having the caution of "children of larger growth," they set the stacks on fire, consumed the winter's provender provided by friend Weaver for his horses and cows, and but for the energy of neighbors, would have caused the conflagration of several houses and barns.

This town is now the most peaceable one in the state, but by the time the present younger generation matures into manhood, if the police court and the jailor don't have plenty of business, it will be because the boys who have not yet reached their teens will have emigrated.

DOMESTIC

December, 1866

The Society of the Army of the Tennessee met November 14. Neither Generals Grant, Sherman, nor Howard were able to attend, and General Rawlings of Illinois was elected president.

The greater portion of the session was occupied in discussing the proposed monument to Major-General M'Pherson. A resolution was finally passed, fixing upon Clyde, Ohio, the burial-place of General M'Pherson, as the proper place for the monument.

The next annual meeting will be held in St. Louis. (St. Louis was chosen because it was the home of Gen. Sherman. In 1867 he was elected president of the Society and was reelected every year until his death.)

The Tennessee Legislature has passed a bill which excludes all persons who are not qualified voters from serving as jurors. If it can be enforced, this bill will keep the juries of the State under the control of the Union men.

The second session of the Thirty-ninth Congress opened December 3rd. The galleries of both Houses were thronged at an early hour. The Second Annual Message of President Johnson is comparatively brief. The decrease of the national debt from the highest point is given at $206,379,565. The Secretary of the Treasury thinks that, with proper economy, a reasonable reduction may be made both on direct taxes and duties on imports, and yet the whole debt be paid by the generation that created it.

The Great Lake Tunnel which is to supply Chicago with water has been completed. It is a mighty feat of engineering skill and will furnish one million people fifty-seven gallons of water each per day.

FOREIGN

December, 1866

"A Traveled Person" writes to an English paper: "In some parts of Germany every bottle containing poison is labeled with a death's head and cross-bones, as black as printer's ink make them. Every bottle of poisonous medicine sent to the patient has a similar label above the address. Pray help me to urge our chemists the adoption of this very simple method, which is plainly within the comprehension of the dullest boy."

Twenty-five years ago Prussia had but seventeen ships in her entire merchant marine. Before the recent war she had 1,665 vessels of all dimensions, and now her merchant marine consists of 10,202 vessels under the Prussian flag, or Prussian protection.

Artemus Ward has had a great success in London as a lecturer. — Frank Leslie's Newspaper.

'SKY-TINTED WATER

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP)—Minnesota bears the Sioux name for one of its rivers. "Minne" means "water" and "sota" has been translated as "sky-tinted."

HUMORS of the day

December, 1866

A sentimental young man thus feelingly expresses himself: "Even as Nature benevolently guards the rose with thorns, so does she endow women with pins."

"How did you get rid of that troublesome suitor of yours, Carrie?" "I married him, and haven't been troubled with his attentions since."

A student in one of our State colleges was charged by the faculty with having a barrel of ale deposited in his room, contrary, of course, to rule and usage. He received a summons to appear before the president, who said:

"Sir, I am informed that you have a barrel of ale in your room."

"Yes, sir."

"Well, what explanation can you make?"

"Well, the fact is, sir, my physician allowed me to try a little ale each day, as a tonic, and not wishing to stop at the various places where this beverage is retailed, I concluded to have a barrel taken to my room."

"Indeed! And have you derived any benefit from it?"

"Ah! yes, sir; when the barrel was first taken to my room, two weeks since, I could scarcely lift it. Now I can carry it with the greatest of ease."

—Harper's Weekly.

BRIMFUL and running over

By Jim Brim

The last month of the year 1966 is with us. Your 1966 income tax return probably isn't due until the 15th of February, but it is high time to be thinking about it.

If your income is up this year, and is one-third or more higher than the average income for the four prior years you may want to consider income averaging. A saving may be realized in this way.

Consult with a tax adviser for aid in doing this.

Make your goal to have the maximum income after taxes and not just to lower taxes. It is not good management to take a lower income just to save on income taxes.

Tips to shift income out of this year and have the effect of lowering your 1966 income:

1. Delay sales of livestock and crops if consistent with good management. But remember that an check is income when received, regardless when it is cashed.
2. Increase cash expenditures for feed, fuel, fertilizer, repairs, seed, etc. Be sure you take delivery and that payment is not refundable. Deposits are not deductible.
3. Pay up all bills for farm expenses and deductible personal expenses.
4. Delay collecting for custom work, trucking, etc. But remember that if funds are credited to you, you can't avoid them as income.
5. Take the extra 20% first year depreciation on tangible personal property with a useful life of six years or more.
6. Use fast methods of depreciation on items with a life of three or more years.
7. Reduce salvage value for depreciation purposes by 10% on depreciable personal property other than livestock.

These items will reduce taxable income and shift income to next year.

To raise your income listing this year and lower your potential for the future do the opposite of above suggestions.

Now you should

- ... check anti-freeze.
- ... clean out hog and sheep sheds.
- ... make Christmas tree ornaments.
- ... make Christmas candy and fruit cakes.
- ... check your new cattle for parasites.
- ... go hunting, carefully.
- ... wear red.
- ... Christmas shop.

In the pell-mell and rush-rush of buying things for Christmas we sometimes lose sight of its origin. Let's look back on some of the old ways of observing Christmas in personal ways and revive some of the giving of oneself through visiting and giving things that we made ourselves.

Take the time to teach the children how to make some small article.

Joy comes twice: one from the joy of accomplishment that comes from making a thing, and the joy of giving it.

A laugh is a smile that has shifted gears.

ROBERT REICH, 18, of Mt. Sterling, received special recognition at the 45th annual 4-H Club Congress in Chicago last week as the outstanding 4-H Tractor Program member in the state of Illinois. He won the state tractor title and an all-expense paid trip to the Club Congress for his activity and leadership in the tractor program.

Miss Teenage America, Sandra Lee Roberts of Milpitas, Calif., presented Reich with a plaque symbolizing his achievement at a special ceremony Sunday night.

He was also an honor guest at a recognition banquet Tuesday night for tractor winners.

He is the son of Ellis H. Reich and is a freshman at the University of Illinois. He has been active in 4-H Club work for the past nine years, four of them in the tractor program. He was selected as outstanding state member in 1963, 1964, and 1965. In 1965 he was also awarded the Illinois State Key Club award. He has served as a local club officer for six years, four as club president.

Beardstown Is No One Horse Town

By VIRGIL REITHER

BEARDSTOWN — Beardstown is no one horse town! And Beardstown is no Cheyenne. But Western horses such as the Appaloosa (which is a breed) and the quarter horse (which is a type) abound in Beardstown and vicinity.

The Cass County Saddle club, active here for several years with almost weekly shows in the summer at the Clement Stables, is getting a new home now that the Clement area is being subdivided for a housing project.

Club members have leased five acres of Herzberger land, on which Kenny Rawlins is farming, for the new Saddle Club Arena. It is located on route 100, some three miles south of Beardstown. Volunteer members have been bulldozing, clearing brush and cleaning up in this sector, and will soon have their track finished and lights installed so the annual show can be held in May.

Near this arena, Glen F. Cooper, 1120 Jefferson street, operates the Appaloosa Acres on the former Ragan property. Cooper purchased about 12 acres and is now engaged in making improvements so that he can operate a trailer court and stables.

He has plans to remodel present barns so 20 horses can be cared for. He is tearing down some buildings and improving others in this program.

Cooper, who came here in 1958 from Virginia, has long been interested in horses and now has seven registered Appaloosas. He says he will continue to raise this breed and expects to sell them as soon as his stock is increased. Cooper also raises hogs on this property.

His son, Tom, lives in a trailer on the place and cares for the animals, which are fed hay and grain.

BROWN 4-H LEADERS SET TRAINING MEET

MT. STERLING — Brown County agriculture and home economic 4-H club leaders will hold a joint training night at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Dec. 13, at the Brown County Farm Bureau building in Mt. Sterling. Hugh Wetzel and Dorothy Goss, 4-H specialists, will present the program, discussing club records and enrollment.

ARENZVILLE 4-H WELCOMES SIX NEW MEMBERS

ARENZVILLE — The reorganization meeting of the Arenzville Indian Creek 4-H Club was held at the Village Hall on Nov. 11.

Awards and pins were presented to the members, and 4-H record books were returned. A regular meeting date for the new club year was also decided.

Refreshments were served to the members and their parents. New members welcomed into the club were Darryl Beard, Sharon Kinsey, Donald Kinsey, Kevin Kleinschmidt, Marsha Schnake and Joni Schone.

Other members were Jan Carls, Jon Carls, Allen Fischer, Gordon Ginder, Joyce Ginder, Roger Kinsey, Carl Kinsey, Jim Kleinschmidt, Karen Kleinschmidt, Jim Lovekamp, Ricki Lovekamp, Gary Meyer, Melvin Schnake, Bob Schnake, Ronnie Vanderpool and Richard Vanderpool.

On Thanksgiving Day the Halls, Mrs. Wiswell, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Strickler, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Goodpasture and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Goodpasture of Memphis, Tenn., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Goodpasture.

CHAPIN 4-H CLUB PRESENTS RADIO PROGRAM ON WLDS

The Chapin Top Notchers Girls' 4-H Club met briefly just before their November 26 morning 4-H Radio Broadcast over Station WLDS, Jacksonville.

Marilyn Schroeder, president, presided and plans were made for the December meeting and Christmas Party, and also for holiday service activities which the group is planning to promote.

Their radio program was entitled, "Leaders Serve 4-H," this being the month when recognition is given to all 4-H leaders in many various ways and on country levels and state and national levels.

Lavona Schone, a member and one of the local club's Jr. leaders, was mistress of ceremonies for the Top Notchers Broadcast. Others participating in the program were Jacqueline Brown, Vickie Carr, Melba Joeckel, Mary Middendorf, Barbara Schroeder, Darlene Schroeder, and Marilyn Schroeder.

Illinois Farm OUTLOOK

SOYBEAN PRICES UP MORE THAN PRODUCT VALUES

Soybean prices were recently 40 to 50 cents a bushel higher than they were a year ago. This higher price is remarkable, since the supply of soybeans is considerably larger than last year and the value of soybean products is only slightly higher.

The supply of soybeans available for the marketing year that began September 1 totaled about 965 million bushels, 10 percent more than the year before. Although it is still nine months to the end of this marketing year, it appears likely that soybeans will not be so scarce next summer as they were this past summer. USDA workers expect the carryover next September 1 to be about one-third more than the 36 million bushels carried over last September 1.

The USDA economists figure that crushings of soybeans will be near 585 million bushels, 9 percent more than last year, and that exports may reach 275 million bushels, up 10 percent. Seed, shrinkage and waste would take about 55 million bushels, leaving around 50 million for carryover. Some people in the soybean industry think that the carryover will be considerably more than 50 million bushels.

Value of products. Over the past five years the average value of products (meal and oil) obtained from a bushel of soybeans was $2.77. The average price received by Illinois farmers for soybeans was $2.54 a bushel, 23 cents less than the value of the products.

As this report is being prepared, soybean meal is worth 3.95 cents a pound ($79.00 a ton), making the 47½ pounds of meal from a bushel of soybeans worth around $1.88. The oil, about 10.8 pounds, at 10.9 cents a pound is worth about $1.18. The total product value is $3.06. Subtracting 23 cents (the five-year average margin) would leave $2.83 for the soybeans.

In November last year the value of products obtained from a bushel of soybeans was $3.00, and the average price received by Illinois farmers was $2.41 a bushel. The unusually wide margin, nearly 60 cents, stimulated a high rate of crushing and was favorable for a soybean price increase later.

Demand for meal. The demand for soybean meal has increased spectacularly during the past 10 years. Both production and prices have increased about three-fourths. The total amount paid for soybean meal has nearly tripled.

Demand for soybean meal should continue strong through-

FHA Counselors Meet In Brown

MT. STERLING — Arthur R. Mayberry and Maurice M. Strang of Morgan county, John Rolf of Cass county, and Harlan Nelson and Dwain Smith of Brown county attended an all-day meeting for Farmers Home Administration county committeemen in the Farm Bureau Building in Mt. Sterling Tuesday, Nov. 29.

Recent changes in regulations were reviewed, with special emphasis on the Economic Opportunity program and sewer and water loans to rural towns. The Farmers Home Administration is an agency of the U.S. Department of Agriculture and makes loans to rural people who are unable to obtain adequate credit from other sources at reasonable rates and terms. It also provides farm and home management aids and advice.

The county committee of the FHA is composed of three farmers in each county. They work closely with the agency's county supervisor and ascertain eligibility for all loans approved by the agency in each county.

Local committeemen unable to be at the meeting are: John E. Crawford of Morgan county, Dale Satorius and Merrill Masten of Cass county, and Ellis Reich of Brown county.

Norman T. Torrens of Jacksonville is the county supervisor for Morgan, Cass, and Brown counties.

out this marketing year. Farmers apparently will be feeding 6 to 8 percent more hogs and 8 to 10 percent more broilers and turkeys. The number of cattle to be fed may be about the same as in the past year. Exports, which took the one-fifth of the output of soybean meal last year, are expected to increase again. Supplies of cottonseed meal, which competes with soybean meal, will be one-fourth less than last year. On the bearish side, lower prices for hogs and poultry may make farmers more reluctant buyers of soybean meal this year.

Surplus of soybean oil. Soybean oil continues in surplus supply. About one-eighth of last year's output was exported under surplus disposal programs. And the carryover on October 1 totaled 500 million pounds, two-thirds more than a year earlier.

Sales of soybean oil may be helped this year by the shortage of cottonseed oil. But land output is greater than it was last year. Soybean oil prices will be affected by many developments not yet in sight.

The romantic young man crept slyly behind the pretty girl, slipped his hands over her eyes, and announced: "If you can't tell who this is in 3 guesses, I'm going to kiss you."

"Let's see," said the girl, "could it be Charlemagne, Alexander the Great, or Jack the Ripper?"

also assume his new duties as Pike county treasurer next Monday under a cloud of doubt. The discovery of 14 votes gained for Democratic candidate Charley Cheek in a recount of eight precincts two weeks ago, gave Cheek a four vote lead over Lyman who won the November 8th election by a 10 vote margin. The unofficial discovery of 14 votes in the recount has no significance in itself other than indicating an official recount of the votes may be taken. It is reported that Cheek plans to submit a petition in the circuit court for an official recount. In case Cheek is declared winner as county treasurer by the official canvass he would then take over the office.

To date no petition has been filed, according to information from the circuit court of office.

New York Stock Market

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market dragged through its third straight week of declining prices amid prospects that tax-loss selling would be heavy between now and the end of the year.

Because of the big 1966 plunge in stock prices there were plenty of losses to take, many of which could be balanced against long-term gains or trading profits.

There was little in the immediate predictable future to give much hope of a strong recovery drive, analysts said. They anticipated the usual year-end rally.

In the week just ended, the Dow Jones industrial average sank 13.87 to 789.47, leaving it near the upper limits of the 780-790 support area which has formed the basis for past strength. This week, nothing much in the way of a rally materialized.

Volume was 36,922,903 shares for the full five-day trading week compared with about 28 million for the four-day trading week previous, cut short by Thanksgiving holiday.

Clan Last Ditch Rally Falls Short

By DAVE INGLES

Illinois Wesleyan University held off a determined MacMurray rally late in the second half Saturday night to post a 91-83 win over the Highlanders at the Mac Fieldhouse.

Trailing by up to 12 points during the early minutes of the second half, the Clan fought to within two points of the Titans before succumbing to some late clutch shooting for IWU.

MacMurray was down 79-70 with four minutes left when guard Chuck Hundley hit for two jumpers from the corner. High point man Al Killoran got a tip, Tom Cochran stole the ball and fired a bucket from the corner and the Highlanders were back in the ball game.

After a short jumper from the circle by Wesleyan's Dennis Kugel, Hundley came back with another long jump shot and Mac was down by only two, 81-79, with a minute and a half left.

A costly turnover lost the ball for the Clan following a two-point shot by IWU's Don Davidson, and Wesleyan went into a stall. Several fouls were committed by the desperate Clansmen attempting to regain possession, and clutch marksmanship from the charity line put the game out of reach for the Wesleyan win.

First Half Ragged
The first half was even but ragged, as the taller Titans completely dominated the boards. MacMurray spotted the visitors a 5-0 lead before getting on the board with a free toss by freshman Mark Kolb with a minute and a half gone. The five-point IWU margin held throughout the first 15 minutes. Mac did get within one point at 27-26 with nine minutes remaining on consecutive jumpers by Bob Alexander, but four minutes later Wesleyan had rung up a ten-point advantage, 40-30. The Clan went almost two minutes without a point. The first half ended 52-42 in the Titans favor after some late see-saw scoring.

Wesleyan enjoyed balanced scoring as six players hit double figures. Titan scoring honors went to senior forwards Bill Patterson and Steve Laub who each hit for 19. Don Davidson and Harry Bohn each chipping 13. Game scoring honors went to MacMurray sophomore forward Al Killoran who netted 22. Captain Chuck Hundley added 15 and reserve man Tom Cochran tallied 13 to aid the Clan cause.

The win was the second straight for Wesleyan to open the new season as the Titans opened by dumping Wayne State of Michigan at home Friday night. For the Clan, the loss evened the state at 1-1 following the opening 95-90 win over Western Illinois at Macomb Thursday.

Low Alcinder Hits 56 Points In Victory

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Lew Alcinder broke all UCLA scoring records for a single game Saturday night, scoring 56 points as he led the Bruins to a 105-90 non-conference victory over Southern California.

The highly publicized 7-foot-1 sophomore center dominated the game in his varsity debut and was an awesome factor on defense. Alcinder hit 23 of 32 field goals and 10 of 14 free throws.

Despite Alcinder, the Bruins started slowly, and the Trojans were able to stay close with good outside shooting and aggressive rebounding. But Alcinder's scoring and defensive shot-blocking pulled the Bruins ahead late in the first half, and USC was never in the game after that.

McKendree 91, Culver 86
LEBANON, Ill. (AP) — McKendree College scored a basket and six free throws in the final minute Saturday to down Culver-Stockton 91-86. Culver-Stockton jumped to a 12-0 first-quarter lead and stayed ahead until the last minute.

Crimsons Outshot From The Outside

ALTON — A hot-shooting Alton quintet had too many fireworks for Jacksonville, here Saturday night, and spoiled the Crimson's season opener with a 92-83 high-scoring victory.

Alton, now 2-1, hit the nets at a hot 50% clip from the field and broke loose with scoring sprees each time the Crimson's got within range after the Redbirds jumped to a 14-point halftime margin.

The loss spoiled some scoring heroics by Jacksonville's Duane Hess and Abe Brown. Hess, a 6-1 senior forward, pumped in 22 points in the second half for a 28-point evening, and Brown, a 5-9 senior guard, accounted for 21 points before fouling out with three minutes left in the game.

JHS hit a respectable 40% from the field and matched the slightly taller Alton club in rebounds, but was unable to cope with the superior outside firing. Neither team was able to cash in on numerous free throw chances in the foul infested (58 fouls) contest. Alton missed 20 from 15 feet and JHS failed to connect 18 times.

Jacksonville led at 7-6 and was tied with Alton three times in the opening frame, with Robin Manker keeping the Crimson's close. After an 11-8 Crimson lead, as JHS hit its first five shots from the field, Alton ripped off ten straight points, with Kevin Schwartz hitting six points, and the Redbirds grabbed an 18-11 margin that held up the rest of the way.

Get Within Three
The visitors got no closer than three points in the second quarter, on buckets by sophomore center Duane Mounts and Brown, but Alton again hit a hot streak with eight straight points, and led 35-24 with 2:30 left in the half.

With the final six points of the half Alton took a commanding 46-32 intermission bulge into the lockerroom. The hosts hit 50% from the field in the half to 37% by JHS.

Two outside buckets by Brown to start the third quarter got JHS within 46-36, but Alton let the Crimson's get no closer in the frame. Lee Hardimon got three easy fast break buckets and center Leon Huff tipped in a pair to off-set three straight buckets by Flood. Hess to give the hosts a 63-51 margin entering the final eight minutes.

With three reserves taking up where regulars left off, Alton ran its margin to 18 points, 77-59, with 5:10 to play. From there Brown and Hess held hot hands and managed to get Jacksonville back into contention.

A string of six straight points by Hess and four points by Mounts got Jacksonville within seven points, 90-83, with only 37 seconds remaining.

Clan Nips Wheaton For Mat Title

Otto, Knight And Henning Cop Firsts

MacMurray edged Wheaton in team points, 90-87, Saturday afternoon to claim the crown in the first MacMurray College Invitational Wrestling tournament in the Highlanders' Fieldhouse.

The race for the team championship was strictly a two-team affair throughout the tourney. The Crusaders and the Clan jumped to a nine point lead over their closest pursuer at the end of the first round, Friday evening. Each had 14 team points.

At the conclusion of Saturday morning's second round, Mac and Wheaton were still deadlocked for the lead at 72 points. University of Illinois-Chicago was a distant third with 39.

Both the Clan and Wheaton sent six men each into the finals.

Victories in the consolation bracket of the finals proved the decisive factor in the Mac team win. The Crusaders and the Highlanders each boasted three champions and three runners up, but the Clan had four consolation champs to Wheaton's two.

Individual Winners
Ron Otto at 137, Gary Henning 167, and Tom Knight 152 brought home championships for MacMurray. Rich Johnson at 130, Pete Brand at 177 and heavyweight Bob Kellogg were Clan runners-up. Consolation winners for the Highlanders included John Cramland, 123, Jim Valicoff, 145, Paul Nelson, 160, and Wayne Schurter, 191.

Otto, a sophomore from Park Ridge, was named Outstanding Wrestler of the tourney in a coaches' poll Saturday afternoon. He positioned Faulkner of Wheaton for the 137-pound title, 10-0, after pinning Kelly of Loras at 3:09 in the opener and taking a 13-0 decision over Mitchell of UIC in the semis.

Pins Score
Only one division crown was decided by a pin. In the 123-pound class, Hill of Wheaton pinned Tsinai of UIC at 3:48. The 130-pound title match with Mac's Johnson and Brown of Duquesne was decided by a referee's decision after three scoreless regular periods and blanks in three one minute overtime periods. The decision went to Brown for an advantage in riding time.

MacMurray's Brann set a new individual school record Saturday in the second round when he shut out Staniszerwski of UIC, 7-0. It was the 52nd career win for the Mac senior, surpassing the old record of 51 set by Bob Mall in 1964.

The win for MacMurray was an impressive start for the season. Coach Dave Camalone's crew will be in action next at the Carthage College Quadrangular to be held Dec. 10 in Kenosha, Wis.

'Bama Ends Perfect Season In 31-0 Romp

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Alabama closed out its campaign for a third straight national football title Saturday with a 31-0 whipping of Auburn, leaving the third-ranked Crimson Tide as the country's only unbeaten and untied team.

Quarterback Kenny Stabler and halfback Les Kelley — who came out of Coach Paul (Bear) Bryant's doghouse earlier in the year — powered the nationally televised triumph which gave Alabama a tie with Georgia for the Southeastern Conference crown.

The shutout was the fourth in a row for Alabama which has allowed only 37 points this fall for the best defensive mark in the nation.

Stabler, a junior, hit on 11 of 16 passes for 169 yards before he was relieved in the third period.

Reserve quarterback Wayne Trimble threw a 41-yard touchdown pass to Donnie Sutton late in the third period to end the scoring. Steve Davis kicked a 23-yard field goal and four conversions for the other Tide points.

The Tigers could not generate an attack after the first quarter, when fullback Tom Bryan left the game after reinjuring his leg.

Illini Open Season With 82-51 Romp

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP) — Illinois used 13 players in opening its basketball season Saturday with an 82-51 romp over the Butler Bulldogs who never have won at Champaign in 18 games since 1931.

The Illini hit 20 of 39 shots for a hot .513 to pile up a 44-23 halftime bulge. Butler, in the same time, made 10 of 39.

Thereafter, the closest Butler came to closing the gap was 54-34 and the widest margin by Illinois was 78-40 after a streak of 12 straight points.

Rich Jones played less than half the game and topped scoring for Illinois with 23 points. Jim Dawson added 17 and sophomore Steve Kuberski 12.

Butler's best was Bill Mauck with 11 points and Gary Cox with 10. Butler wound up with 22 field goals in 70 attempts for a cold .314. Illinois was 36-78 for 462 and out-rebounded the visitors 55 to 38 with Jones leading with 14.

Pascual, Allen Go To Nats For Ron Kline

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Washington Senators have acquired pitcher Camilo Pascual and second baseman Bernie Allen from Minnesota for veteran relief pitcher Ron Kline, General Manager George Selkirk said Saturday night.

Pascual, 32-year-old right hander who won 20 games for the Twins in 1962 and 21 in 1963, shipped to an 8-6 record last season when he was out for two months with a sore arm. Kline, 34-year-old right hander, had a 6-4 record with the Senators.

Allen, 27, is a left-handed hitter who batted .238 with the Twins last season but has a .296 lifetime batting average against Washington and has hit nine of his 32 career homers against the Senators.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. — Gary Forsythe and Steve Baugh copped individual championships, but IBSSS placed third behind Indiana and Kentucky in a mat triangular, here Saturday.

Indiana won the meet with 93 points, followed by Kentucky with 77 and Illinois with 67. Forsythe won the 103-pound title and Baugh the heavyweight crown. Bill Smith at 112, T. J. Cravens at 133 and Ken Staley at 154 all won seconds for the Warriors.

CRIMSON FRESHMEN OPEN WITH 2 WINS
The Jacksonville High school freshmen opened the season with a pair of wins over Canton, Saturday. The 'A' team won 47-40, while the 'B' squad notched a 35-21 victory.

Chad Ormiston poured in 29 points for the winning 'A' team, which had to come from behind in the fourth quarter. The Crimson were down by six entering the frame, but Ormiston's ten points led to a 21-point fourth settled the issue.

Frank Lawrence hit 11 points and Randy Headon added ten to pace the 'B' squad which led only 22-15 until the final period.

Cowboys Are 2 TD Favorites

The St. Louis Cardinals, who haven't scored a touchdown in three weeks, probably will need more than one Sunday when they tackle Dallas' free-wheeling Cowboys in a showdown for the National Football League's Eastern Conference lead.

St. Louis, despite its touchdown famine, starts the day in a first-place tie, at 8-2-1, with Dallas in the East. But the Cowboys, the NFL's highest-scoring outfit, are favored by two touchdowns in the rematch of a 10-10 early-season standoff between the clubs.

The Cardinals, who lost quarterback Charley Johnson for the season a month ago, were upended by Pittsburgh 21-6 three weeks ago, drew a bye the following weekend and then edged the Steelers 6-3 last Sunday. The only St. Louis points in those two games were registered on field goals by Jim Bakken.

Refuses To Panic
Coach Charley Winner refused to panic, however, as the Cards prepared for Sunday's game, which has sold out the 75,504-seat Cotton Bowl for the first time in the Cowboys' six-year NFL history.

"I've heard some people say we've already conceded the game," Winner said, "but let me tell you, we're going to win it."

Winner's upset plan hinges on a strong showing by quarterback Terry Nofsinger. Johnson's replacement, who thus far has failed to click, and a rugged defensive unit led by NFL interception leader Larry Wilson.

Stacked against the Cards are the Cowboys' potent offensive forces led by Don Meredith, the league's No. 2 passer, and Dan Reeves, the touchdown leader with 14. The Cowboys have averaged just under 34 points per game, the Cardinals less than 20.

Rams Solid Pick
Dick Bass, the league's No. 3 rusher, quarterback Roman Gabriel and an awesome defensive front four that manhandled Baltimore last week make the Rams a solid pick over Detroit, which depends heavily on the Karl Sweetan-Pat Studstill aerial combination in the absence of an established running attack.

The Eagles figure to have too much offense for Pittsburgh in their return meeting but the Steelers have shown defensive strength since bowing 31-14 to Philadelphia's fourth-quarter surge two months ago.

MRS. NED JACKSON, public education chairman of the Morgan County Cancer Society, presents the first copy of a booklet, "1967 Cancer Facts and Figures" to Wilfrid E. Rice, county superintendent of schools. Mr. Rice assisted in distribution of the booklets to all schools in the county.

1967 Cancer Facts Presented To Schools In Morgan County

Copies of the "1967 Cancer Facts and Figures" were released last week in Morgan county. The annual publication issued by the American Cancer Society gives the latest roundup of information on cancer.

The first copy was presented to Wilfrid E. Rice, county superintendent of schools by Mrs. Ned Jackson, public education chairman of the Morgan County Unit, American Cancer Society.

Through the office of the county superintendent, copies have been placed in every school in Morgan county.

The publication shows that deaths from cancer of the lung continue to mount, with an estimated 51,800 deaths for 1967 as compared with 49,800 this year.

A decline is indicated in the number of deaths from uterine cancer, with 13,500 estimated in 1967 as compared with 13,700 this year. The American Cancer Society attributes the increased number of lives saved to the wider application of the Pap test which helps detect cancer in its early and more curable stages.

United Fund Wind-Up Set For This Week

With better than 68 per cent of the goal reported, the United Fund enters its last week of solicitation. Co-Chairmen Robert Spink and Ralph Troyer ask that all solicitors turn in their reports to the United Fund office before Thursday, which has been set as the final report meeting.

Ralph Troyer said, "Cards are in the hands of solicitors for every known prospect. We have every reason to believe that if solicitors will complete their calls, we can reach our goal of $120,000. This will be a real milestone for Morgan County, if we can achieve this goal."

"I don't like to plead, but I guess that is what we are doing—pleading with our solicitors to wind everything up this week so that the United Fund does not conflict any more than it already has with Christmas preparation."

Karen Beard Of Arenzville Is November Bride

ARENZVILLE — Reverend Robert McClelland performed the ceremony Wednesday evening, November twenty-third, at the Arenzville Presbyterian church, which united in marriage Miss Karen Lynn Beard of Arenzville and Donald Eugene Hamilton of Chapin.

The bride's brother, Myron Beard, was soloist and Vickie Hamilton, sister of the groom, served as the accompanist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beard of Arenzville and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harlin Hamilton, Chapin route one.

Miss Jill Reel of Barry, Illinois, former room-mate of the bride, was her only attendant. Paul Ersfeld of Norridge, Illinois, college friend of the groom, was best man. Richard Hess and Gerald Beard, brother of the bride, seated guests.

Mr. Beard gave his daughter in marriage. The bride wore a gown of white peau with Alencon lace applique. Her gown's detachable train was also lace trimmed. A fingertip blusher veil of imported illusion fell from a pleated peau headpiece, fashioned by the mother of the groom. She carried a cascade of white roses centering a single white Fuji mum.

Miss Reel wore floor length moss green crepe, styled much like the gown worn by the bride, with a corresponding headpiece. She carried a cascade of yellow roses centering a yellow Fuji mum.

The mother of the bride wore a rose wool knit costume with a corsage of white Fuji mums. The groom's mother was in champagne colored brocade with brown accessories. Her flowers were bronze Fuji mums.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents following the six-thirty o'clock ceremony. Assisting were Maxine and Millie Beard, sisters-in-law of the bride; Susan and Jan Beard, nieces of the bride; Vickie Hamilton, sister of the groom; Tamara Beard, niece of the bride and Judy Hamilton, sister of the groom. Rice packets were distributed to guests by Diana Hamilton, sister of the groom, Bobby and Todd Beard, nephews of the bride, Darryl Beard and Gerry Beard, nephews of the bride, lighted tapers at the altar during the prelude.

The newlyweds will reside on route one at Chapin. Both young people are graduates of Triopia High School. The bride is in her senior year at Passavant Hospital School of Nursing and the groom is a junior at Illinois College.

Guests attended from Arenzville, Chapin, Concord, Jacksonville, Barry, Chicago, Golden and Clayton, Ill. and Iowa. The rehearsal supper was served at the Blackhawk the Tuesday night before the wedding.

A Red Welcome

Red carnations, backed with red foliage, arranged in a bright red vase, make a striking decoration for an entrance hall table or an end table, suggests the Society of American Florists.

BELIEVE A PANTSUIT?
Chevron stripes have been seen lately streaking across vinyl. They are giant-sized zigzags of black and white. Would you believe a pantsuit? Solid black vinyl pants and a double-breasted black and white jacket — all in that wet-looking shiny stuff.

Chamberlain And Epperly Nuptials At Local Church

November newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Eugene Chamberlain are making their home in this city since returning from a wedding trip taken following their marriage in Jacksonville November sixth.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard D. Epperly, 111 North Kosciusko street and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Chamberlain of Pittsfield.

Miss Mary Epperly, sister of the bride, and David Chamberlain, brother of the groom, attended the couple, Mary Jane and James Fischer, Beardstown, cousins of the bride, registered guests and distributed rice bags.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a conventional length dress of white silk organza and lace. A silver and lace crown held her veil of illusion. She carried a cascade of white and blue carnations.

Miss Mary Epperly wore pastel blue crepe and lace with a matching headpiece. She carried a cascade of white and blue carnations.

The mother of the bride wore beige crepe and lace with corresponding color accessories. The groom's mother was in a blue suit with blue accessories. Each wore a white orchid corsage.

Takes on Wife's Pregnancy Symptoms

By ANN LANDERS
Dear Ann Landers: I am 28 and the mother of two children. I am now pregnant with my third child. I sailed through my first two pregnancies with no trouble. This time, however, I am experiencing morning nausea and I can't eat anything until noon.
Is it possible for my husband to be sick on account of this, also? He actually throws up when I do and neither one of us can figure it out.
I told him I'd ask my doctor and he gave me orders to keep quiet about it. He suggested I write to you and sign a phony name which I am doing. Please reply in the paper? Thank you.
—MRS. SMITH
Dear Mrs. Smith: Your husband should get a physical check-up and learn if there is something organically wrong with him.
Don't be surprised if he gets a clean bill of health. It is not uncommon for the husband to take on a wife's symptoms. Some men have actually had "labor pains" when their wives delivered.
When you get to feeling better (soon, I hope) I'll bet he will feel better too.

Dear Pooped: It's not only better for the teacher when the small fry can manage for themselves, it's better for the kids. Youngsters who are taught self-reliance are fortunate. Mental health begins in infancy. Independence and a sense of achievement are important cornerstones. A few minutes a day will do it, mother.
Dear Ann Landers: Our daughter is approaching dating age and I'm terrified. I believe children should be trusted, but in today's society can't too much trust be dangerous?
Celeste says double-dating is a good safeguard against getting into trouble, but I don't think it means anything anymore. From what I read, heavy petting is so commonplace that there is no longer safety in numbers.
Don't you think parents should go to the movies with a daughter and her date? They don't have to sit together but they could be somewhere around.

Also, don't you think parents should encourage their teen-age girls to entertain boy friends in the house so they won't park in cars and go to out of the way places? I'd like your opinion.
—DREAMING OF A BETTER WORLD
Dear Dreaming: Wake up, Dear, and accept the fact that early training — and not policing — will determine how your daughter conducts herself.
I am in favor of girls entertaining their boy friends in the living room, but they must have privacy. Forget about tagging along to the movies with your daughter and her date. Teens who feel they are under constant surveillance will make a game of outsmarting their captors and they will win, eventually.
Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Selective Shopping Saves ??

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
Q—Can you give me any hints on how to save money on food and still feed my family well?
A—Here are a few from retailers we talked with. The staples of fresh fruits and vegetables change continually, with lowered prices usually going together with increased supplies. To save on the food bill, shift among choices.
—The consumer who wants Boston lettuce and Boston lettuce only on the week of Ro-maine is spending extra money for a fixed preference.
—Large sizes of fruits and vegetables are more costly than regular or small sizes but are not superior in flavor.

—Or take meat. Right now pork is in relatively short supply and expensive, but broilers are not. To serve economical meals, use broilers more often.
—Sometimes a difference in cost. For example, sliced Swiss cheese in vacuum pack costs more than the regular store non-vacuum wrap. In one local store surveyed, Swiss cheese in an 8-ounce vacuum pack retailed for 53 cents or $1.06 per pound compared with the same size package of identical cheese in store wrap at 93 cents per pound.

Doctor Can Remove Taint From Son's Prurient Bent

By MURIEL LAWRENCE
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
DEAR MRS. LAWRENCE: Our 16-year-old boy is hiding magazines with pictures of naked women in his room. His older sister and I found them when we were cleaning his room. He thinks he will outgrow his interest in them. But my 22-year-old son says his father should give him a good talking-to as some men never outgrow their interest in dirty pictures. My husband hasn't been told about this yet.
ANSWER: Your daughter sounds as sensible to me as your 22-year-old son sounds stuffy — and even dangerous.

Would you all prefer that this boy in 16-year-old, near-man of yours be interested in pictures of the unclothed male body? I know I'm not being nice and agree with you that his pictures sympathetic to you. I should be of the unclothed female body. I know what kind of wicked are "dirty" or he wouldn't be making of Americans' terrified his sister is not the appropriate person to deal with this "dirty" interest of his. I going into horrified shock when suggest that you ask your family physician to talk to him and try to clean it of the filth that's been piled on it so that it can become acceptable to him. Will you kindly tell me how you can expect this boy to ever feel love for a real, specific woman, already so ashamed as he is of his interest in anony-

By WALTER C. PARKES
A person all wrapped up in himself is no gift to anybody.
Folk who have a rough time running their own lives have no trouble telling others how to run theirs.
Talk is cheap except when she says "I do".
They say the occupational therapy classes in "booby houses" are now busy turning out Christ-mas neckties.
There are too many people in our segregated clubs and civic groups who are restrained by their own fears. They're afraid to do what they know they ought to do. As John Clardi once said, "In this security-conscious society of ours we're so afraid of going broke that we're afraid to go for broke."
There are too many people in our segregated clubs and civic groups who are restrained by their own fears. They're afraid of what someone will say. There are too many people in a neighborhood who are afraid to speak with courage. They're afraid of what someone will say.
It's easy enough to slash out with abrasive words or irresponsible acts. What so many citizens need to explore is the ancient statement, "For the love of Christ constraineth us." J. B. Phillips translates that, "The very spring of our actions is the love of Christ."
There are social injustices to be dealt with in our time. There are areas which have the need of communication. There are honest people who have been working and are continuing to work to meet these needs, secure this justice and build a community in which every man is free, uncaged from either another man's tyranny or his own restraints. It is a time for constraint, a time when "the love of Christ allows us no choice."

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

In northeastern United States the Cicada septendecim, after living underground in the pupal state for 17 years, finally emerge from their hideouts as adult locusts, says The World Almanac. They produce a shrill, high-pitched noise and often swarm over entire areas, devouring crops as they go. Fortunately, after laying their eggs on leaves, they soon die. When the eggs hatch, the nymphs drop to the ground, where they bury themselves for another 17-year cycle.

A National Problem That Needs Airing

If smog were only a problem in Los Angeles and New York, most Americans wouldn't need to worry about it. If it were a problem confined only to the big cities, it would still not be cause for overwhelming national concern.
The fact is, however, that no less than 7,300 communities have air pollution problems of varying degree, according to the U.S. Public Health Service. There simply aren't 7,300 big cities in the country.
Today, the waste that is dumped into the air by one town adds to the pollution over another. City pollutes city and state pollutes state—and the countryside in between—at an ever-increasing rate that is beginning to exceed the natural capacity of the atmosphere to cleanse itself.
Air pollution is always annoying. When it is combined with a temperature inversion, such as occurred in New York at Thanksgiving and occurs regularly in Los Angeles, it can be fatal to the elderly and persons with respiratory illnesses.

No amount of effort by any one city, no matter how strenuous, can do more than ameliorate the local problem. Air pollution, the same as water pollution, demands a regional approach.
So far, there have been no interstate attacks on the problem, though the Department of Health, Education and Welfare has identified three critical regions and ordered the six states involved to hold air pollution abatement conferences.
A New Jersey - New York conference is to be held early next year. Millions of Americans will be watching with smarting eyes in hopes that it will arrive at some solutions other regions can apply.
Every citizen should be allowed to breathe the air of freedom without gagging.

News (Groan) For The Man

Here's an item of possible interest to men:
By 1970, half of the the drivers in the United States will be women!
Before you take to the hills, gentlemen, remember that there already are 38 million women behind the wheel, against — and the word is used purely by coincidence — 58 million male drivers.
The number of women drivers has doubled since 1952, due to more suburbs, more two-car families, more unmarried career women and more people, period.
As you might expect, this boom in distaff driving has not gone unnoticed by the people who make and service automobiles.
Auto manufacturers are so convinced the Little Woman often casts the deciding vote in choosing the family car that they are paying closer and closer attention to her preferences in color and styling, and are offering such lady-lures as suspended accelerator pedals (to meet the high heel problem), facial tissue dispensers and "his" and "her" ashtrays.

And service stations are recognizing that premium restrooms are just as important to the ladies as miracle additives in the gasoline are to the men. So fancy powder rooms are replacing bleak cubicles.
Traffic authorities seem to agree that women are driving more safely and more expertly day by day. And most men are accepting the fact that the woman driver is here to stay, even if not in one spot.
There will probably always remain, however, the occasional cynic who insists that when a woman sticks out her hand in traffic to give a signal, it means only one thing — that the window is down.
(That's only a quote, ladies, and does NOT necessarily reflect the views of this newspaper!)

Washington Romney Gathers The Bricks To Build Presidential Bid

By BRUCE BISSAT
Washington Correspondent
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
WASHINGTON (NEA) — The 1968 presidential bid of Michigan Gov. George W. Romney is clearly under way — and is getting significant help from many outside quarters.
Very shortly, a top Romney aide, Robert J. McIntosh, will be freed of his duties as head of the state Commerce Department so he can devote full time to tactics and strategy.
McIntosh, of course, has been busy at the Romney build-up for many months.
Former GOP National Chairman Leonard Hall of New York will be used heavily from here on as a campaign consultant, though flat reports that he has been hired as "campaign manager" seem either incorrect or premature.
Hall, incidentally, is a natural ally, since he has close contacts with two of Romney's long-time Washington friends, J. Willard Marriott and Clifford Folger.
It is not clear at this stage who will take on the vital chore of rustling delegates. Hall often is spoken of in these terms, as he was in 1963-64, but he actually never has undertaken them. Labor F. Clifton White, former Goldwater lieutenant, showed conclusively in 1964 that it could be managed brilliantly without vast experience.
The Romney push is obviously not operating today at a full go-ahead, but reports from within the camp suggest the pace will quicken within a fortnight.
Meantime, the governor, riding on his 570,000-vote victory and his big pull-in of other Michigan Republicans, is being thrust into the glare by other GOP moderates favorable to his candidacy.
New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller long ago made plain he

Timely Quotes

There is nothing in the dreary and pathological performance of mainland China — or of the other Communist regimes in Asia — that represents to them (the non-Communist countries) the wave of the future. — Walt W. Rostow.
As long as we let ourselves be deluded into thinking that the United Nations is an effective organization for collective security and mutual self defense, which it is not, it prevents us from organizing something that could be what the United Nations claims to be and is not. — Sen. Russell B. Long.
Counting newcomers and lame ducks, 31 key Republicans could appear in Colorado. Informal polling on preferences is likely, with the Michigan governor an indicated first choice among moderates.
With so many new faces and retiring old faces due there, an earlier proposal of a leading party figure to seek an outright Romney endorsement from the governors today seems highly impractical.
These various bits of political mosaic, only the first handful of many to follow, establish an unmistakable pattern of motion. Beyond question the early speed reflects the determination of Republican progressives not to be caught again in the disorganization and delay which rendered them nearly impotent two years ago.
But the prompt crankup for George Romney also follows a time-honored political custom.

250 Million Transfusions

Home Building Industry Aided

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government is giving the sagging home building industry a $250-million emergency transfusion. Some builders hail it as a step in the right direction. Others say it is too little, too late.

President Johnson ordered the release Monday of one-fourth of the $1 billion in special federal mortgage funds authorized by the last Congress. The government said the action would permit construction of 15,000 new homes.

Due largely to a shortage of mortgage funds, the housing industry is mired in its deepest recession in two decades. Total housing starts in October dropped to 83,100 units — the lowest since World War II and more than 50,000 under October 1965.

The $250 million will be used to buy mortgages insured by the Federal Housing Administration and the Veterans Administration up to $15,000, or $17,500 in high cost areas, and $22,500 in Hawaii, Alaska and Guam.

On mortgages up to $15,000, FHA requires a 3 per cent down payment. An additional 10 per cent is required on the next $5,000 and 20 per cent on the purchase price between $20,000 and $30,000, the FHA ceiling.

Thus a house costing $15,450 would have an FHA mortgage of $15,000 and one costing $18,200 an FHA mortgage of $17,500. The Veterans Administration has no requirement for down payments which are up to the individual builder.

Release of the federal mortgage funds coincided with these other developments related to the nation's economy:

—Officials in Washington said no decision has been made on whether the President will ask Congress next year to raise taxes. "It's still a 50-50 chance," one said. A day earlier, Rep. Hale Boggs, D-La., said he expects Johnson to seek a tax increase of between $10 billion and $15 billion.

—Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., predicted a sharp division in the new Congress over the issue of possible tax increases. Proxmire is in line to become chairman of the Senate-House Economic Committee in the 1967 session.

—House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford said the GOP will keep plugging for a sharing of federal revenues with the states even if federal spending is cut and taxes raised.

—Dr. Leon H. Keyserling, who was economic adviser to former President Harry S. Truman, said in a Denver, Colo., speech that "holding back the economy to restrain inflation, rather than stimulating the economy, seems palpably wrong to me."

CHAPIN LUTHERAN CIRCLE TO FAVOR KINDSCHY FAMILY

The November meeting of the Mary and Martha Circle of the St. Paul's Lutheran church at Chapin was held recently.

Mrs. Wendell Middendorf accompanied for a hymn and Rev. Norman L. Bultman spoke on Christian Stewardship.

Twenty-eight members answered roll. Various officers and committees reported.

Mrs. Alpha Nergenah and Mrs. Arthur Nergenah were visitors to the shut-ins.

Further plans were announced for the Family Night on December 4th. It is to be a potluck supper, beginning at 6:00 p.m. The committee will furnish the dessert and drink and each family is to bring their own table service. A food shower for the Clarence Kindschy family will be given at Family Night. Gifts for the Kindschys are to be brought unwrapped and with no names.

Various donations for Christmas gifts were made and it was voted to have mystery pals for the coming year.

Mrs. Earl Werries, Mrs. Jack Brown and Mrs. Esther Berghaus were hostesses and the entertainment committee was Mrs. Delbert Fricke, Mrs. Loren Brockhouse and Mrs. Fred Lakamp.

Guests were Mrs. David Phillips, Billy Berghaus, Janice Brown, Jacob Russwinkel and Cheryl Wohlers.

Next time you serve creamed green peas, top them with a lavish amount of crumbled crisply cooked bacon. Small fry usually love this combination—so do older folk!

Some defenders false - card automatically. Such false - card plays are more likely to fool their partners than the declarers. Expert defenders save their false cards for occasions when only the declarer can go wrong.

North's four club response to his partner's no - trump was the Gerber convention and asked South to show how many aces he held. South's four spade re-bid showed two aces and North placed the contract at six no-trump.

It was a very good contract. South started with 11 tricks and without a heart opening he would make his twelfth trick in spades irrespective of the location of the king.

However, West opened the deuce of hearts. The eight was played from dummy and East could have forced South's ace with the ten but East played the queen instead. This play couldn't possibly fool West. East knew that South held the heart ace and, he was looking at every other heart down to the eight spot.

South looked at the queen of hearts for a long time. Then he put on his ace and ran off dummy's five club tricks.

He discarded two spades. East discarded the seven and deuce of the same suit, just in case South did not hold the king while West let a heart and two spades go.

Then South played two rounds of diamonds, went into executive session with himself, led a heart toward dummy and played the nine.

Had East played the ten of hearts at trick one, South would surely have tried the spade finesse and would have made his contract.

Cass Supervisors May Name Assessment Chief

BEARDSTOWN — When the Cass County Board of Supervisors meets Dec. 13 in Virginia, a decision is expected to be made on the suggestion that a supervisor of assessments be named to improve the methods of taxation.

Gilbert Lebkuecher, Bluff Springs supervisor, who was elected chairman of the board at the organization meeting Nov. 30, said that favorable action on the move to name such an official need not result in higher taxes.

"The objective here is not to increase taxes," Lebkuecher declared, "but to equalize taxes and to bring into the county tax picture property that may have been missed over the years."

The new chairman indicated that there is a chance that the cost of such a program could be more than compensated by additional tax money brought to the county, even though the individual tax bill would not be increased.

"Members of the board are being asked to study the proposition," the chairman explained, "and a poll will be taken at the next meeting to determine the consensus. If the proposal is favored, we will proceed, if opposed the plan will simply die."

A supervisor of assessments would first have to qualify with the state department of revenue and then be chosen by the supervisors—this is the way the county highway supervisor is named. At the present time, the Illinois Department of Revenue is pressing this plan as one to benefit all concerned. Forty-eight of Illinois' 102 counties already have such officials directing the tax program.

Aside from discussing the new tax plan and naming a new board chairman to succeed Arthur Glick, who has been elected county treasurer, the board Tuesday approved bills and claims and conducted other routine business.

Lebkuecher is not the first Bluff Springs supervisor to head the board—the late Gus Carl of Bluff Springs was chairman for many years.

The makeup of the Cass board is 10 Democrats and three Republicans, including the newly-named supervisor from Panther Creek, Duane Shores, who was named by the town board to succeed Treasurer Glick.

Beardstown township is represented by William H. DeSollar, supervisor, and Nick Long and Dale Hager, assistant supervisors. Others are Marlin Winkelman of Hager, Mrs. Ether Morrison of Arenzville, Martin Maslin of Virginia, G. L. Jurgens of Chandlerville, Fred Dotzert of Sangamon Valley, Vernon Edwards of Newmansville, Glenn Hillen of Philadelphia, Edgar Thornley of Ashland and Chairman Lebkuecher.

The new member, Mr. Shores, is a business man who operates a fertilizer dealership in the Panther Creek - Chandlerville area.
